Profile

6+ years building production solutions across data engineering, marketing automation, and system integration at enterprise scale. Now focused on engineering scalable solutions on a modern JavaScript / TypeScript stack, driven by a genuine curiosity for emerging AI tools and techniques. Seeking a [job title] role where I can apply [key skill/keyword from job ad] to [company goal / team focus].

Experience

Skie, a Bluprintx company

January - August 2026

Marketing Automation Consultant (Affected by redundancy)

- Architected and delivered end-to-end Salesforce Data Cloud implementations for enterprise clients across Australia and Asia, unifying multi-source data pipelines into a single customer data platform.
- Designed data models and identity resolution strategies, to power customer segmentation and real-time activation pipelines.
- Produced technical documentation, user stories with acceptance criteria, and Agile delivery artefacts for cross-functional teams across multiple concurrent client engagements.

DXC Technology

October 2021 - January 2026

Marketing Cloud Developer

- Delivered scalable marketing automation solutions for enterprise clients using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, SQL, and REST APIs across Salesforce Marketing Cloud.
- Developed email templates, audience segmentation queries, and automation workflows supporting large-scale campaign delivery.
- Built internal tooling that improved team efficiency and reduced delivery time across projects.
- Collaborated directly with clients on requirements, training, and handover documentation.
